

Notes: The analysis is restricted to the control group. Midline test scores are used in place of endline test scores when endline test scores are missing. When both endline and midline test scores are available, the average of the two is used.